Over View:

Hanoi is a sacred land of Vietnam. The year 1010 then became an historical date for Hanoi and for the whole country in general. Throughout the thousand years of its eventful history, marked by destruction, wars and natural calamities, Hanoi still preserves many ancient architectural works including the Old Quarter and over 600 pagodas and temples. Famous sites include the Temple of Literature (built in 1070), Hanoi Opera House, Hoan Kiem Lake, Ngọc Sơn Temple...

Itinerary detail:

13h00	Our guide will meet you at hotel lobby for an interesting city tour to Vietnam's gracious capital.
13h30	We will visit the Temple of Literature which is the first Imperial University in Vietnam where will not only give you a preview of the former Vietnamese Education but also show you about the Art of traditional architecture.
15h30	Visit Hoan Kiem Lake (Restored Sword lake) and Ngoc Son Temple . Hoan Kiem Lake is considered the center of Hanoi, not only physically but also

	symbolically. Hoan Kiem lake is still a pride of all Hanoians and the center for any distance measurement. Nowadays, it's still a gathering place yet new Hanoians may live too far to count their distance to the lake. Still, as you walk by, you will be able to witness the pace of life in this peculiar city. Ngoc Son Temple is Hanoi's most visited temple - which sits on a small island in the northern part of Hoan Kiem Lake, connected to the lakeshore by an elegant scarlet bridge, constructed in classical Vietnamese style.
16h00	Enjoy the Water Puppet show. The Art of water puppetry began a thousand years ago, possibly in the flooded rice fields of Vietnam Puppeteers today stand in waist - high water and manipulate their charges in such a way that you can't help but be swept up in the legend being told. Music accompanies the action (be sure to listen for the "dan bau", an instrument made from a dried watermelon rind that produces haunting sounds). Noted: Depend on the schedule of the water puppet show our tour guide will be change the suitable program.
